

QUALITY POLICY

Customers: provide customers with a level of both quality and service, meeting the specifications agreed upon and the regulatory requirements.

Employees and subcontractors: contribute to ongoing improvements of products, processes, strategies and utilization of resources.

Management: ensure innovation of ongoing improvements of values, strategies and utilization of resources.

Results: are to provide for a continuous development of the shipyard through competitive processes, products and services.